TIME PERIODS FOR FILING A REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. If any of above boxes 1. to 4. are checked, the correction required is only the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121.

Failure to timely respond to this notice will result in:

Abandonment of the application if the non-compliant amendment is a non-final amendment or an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action; or

Non-entry of the amendment if the non-compliant amendment is a preliminary amendment or supplemental amendment.

Continuation of 4(e) Other:

The amendment to the claims is non-compliant and has not been entered because it fails to properly indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims and also because it contains claims which do not have the proper status identifier. As such the individual status of each claim cannot be identified.

Notably, 37 CFR § 1.121 sets forth the following:

All claims being currently amended in an amendment paper shall be presented in the claim listing, indicate a status of "currently amended," and be submitted with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. Only claims having the status of "currently amended," or "withdrawn" if also being amended, shall include markings. If a withdrawn claim is currently amended, its status in the claim listing may be identified as "withdrawn — currently amended."

In this case, e.g., the amendment to claim 1, line 6 indicates that the text ~~[[II]]~~ is to be deleted and the text I is to be added; yet claim 1 which was amended by preliminary amendment filed 12/22/05 did not recite "II" in the corresponding line, i.e., line 10, but instead already recited "I". Accordingly, the amendment fails to properly indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version.

Furthermore the amendment fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.121 because claims 3-10 and 12-19 are presented with the status identifier (Original); yet as detailed in the restriction requirement mailed April 1, 2008, these claims were either amended or newly presented by preliminary amendment.

As set forth in MPEP 714: Claims added by a preliminary amendment must have the status identifier (new) instead of (original), even when the preliminary amendment is present on the filing date of the application and such claims are treated as part of the original disclosure. If applicant files a subsequent amendment, applicant must use the status identifier (previously presented) if the claims are not being amended, or (currently amended) if the claims are being amended, in the subsequent amendment. Claims that are canceled by a preliminary amendment that is present on the filing date of the application are required to be listed and must have the status identifier (canceled) in the preliminary amendment and in any subsequent amendment. Accordingly, claims which were either amended or newly presented by preliminary amendment should have the status identifier (previously presented) if they are not currently being amended.

Only the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment must be resubmitted (in its entirety), e.g., the entire "Amendments to the claims" section of applicant's amendment must be re-submitted. 37 CFR § 1.121(h).
